

Press Release

Fifth Avenue Agency and Morningstar Emergency Physicians collaborate to provide annual scholarship opportunities for Medical Students at the OSU Center for Health Sciences. Six scholarships will be provided in $1,000 dollar increments to Medical Students who show an interest in pursuing residency training in the field of Emergency Medicine. The candidates will also need to show proficiency towards Emergency Medicine through extra-curricular activity and/or referrals from established Emergency Medicine Physicians, plan to stay in Oklahoma, and be in good academic standing.

Morningstar Emergency Physicians provides care to Hospital Emergency Rooms in Oklahoma. Their pursuit of quality care and professionalism has afforded them the reputation as a leader in their field of practice. Morningstar hopes the scholarships will draw attention to the specialty and attract the most talented new physicians to the field of Emergency Medicine.

Fifth Avenue Agency is a leader in providing Medical Malpractice Insurance and Risk Transfer options to physicians in Oklahoma. Fifth Avenue is known for their ability to provide solutions and unbiased advice to their clients. Fifth Avenue is excited to partner with Morningstar to provide this opportunity to Medical Students and further raise the standards for education and training which is so vital to the field of Risk Management in today's economy.
